MONUMENT MOVED ACROSS MOUNTAIN

Ames Memorial Transported Stone by Stone Nearer Railroad.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Sept. 2.—Workmen have practically completed the unique task of dismantling the famous Ames monument, out on the crest of the continent, the immense granite blocks, stone by stone, and replacing them on a new pedestal closer to the railroad, the completion of which resulted in its erection.

In 1924, when President Lincoln was experiencing great difficulty in having his Pacific Railroad constructed, he finally chose Oakes Ames, a prominent manufacturer and promoter of Massachusetts, to take up the task. Ames risked financial ruin in the undertaking, but succeeded in 1929 in completing the great steel highway to the Pacific coast.

A medallion of Oakes Ames is on one side of the monument, and on the other a medallion of his brother, Oliver Ames, a partner of Oakes in his business enterprises and president of the Union Pacific Railroad in 1896-97.

ENCOURAGES TRADE WITH SOUTH AMERICA

Uncle Sam Inaugurates "Open-Door" Relations with Chile.

By W. H. ATKINS, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

In the midst of war's desolation Uncle Sam is adopting real constructive measures to strengthen the bonds between the United States and the countries of Latin America.

One of these measures will have the immediate effect of stimulating shipbuilding communication between the republics of America. This is the authorization given by the United States Shipping Board for the establishment of a rapid passenger and freight service between New York and Valparaiso, Chile. In part it is a fulfillment of one of the important objects sought to be accomplished by International High Commission formed as a result of the Pan-American Financial Conference in Washington two years ago.

Shipping board officials point out the fact that the new service is of great interest to the Argentine as well as to the west coast countries. With an eighteen-day service to Valparaiso it will be possible to reach Buenos Aires from New York in less than twenty days. This, of course, will involve the use of the Trans-Andean Railway from Valparaiso to Buenos Aires, a trip of about forty hours. The understanding of officials here is that the new line will alternate its sailings with those of the regular fortnightly line from New York to Buenos Aires.

Thus a new standard in transportation facilities between the United States and South America has been set, and with such a policy outlined it is safe to predict that within a few years we may see a rapid improvement in means of communication with all other parts of South America.

Labor Day will be observed here by a general suspension of business. Banks, city and government offices will be closed all day. Today hundreds of persons left the city to spend the day at nearby resorts. Included in this number were many motor parties.

Judge Bennett T. Gordon, of Nelson County, has been designated by Gov. Smith to hold a special term of the Prince William County Court, beginning Tuesday, in place of Judge J. B. T. Thornton, who is ill.

SAYS VICE MENACES U. S. TROOPS ABROAD

St. Louis Clergyman Talks of Conditions Prevailing in Europe.

St. Louis, Sept. 2.—Europe is over-run by vice and immorality, according to the statement of the Rev. Elmer T. Clark, of St. Louis, who has just returned from a six months' visit to Europe, where he studied moral conditions as affected by the war.

"American soldiers in France and England are menaced by a sort of unattached women," he said. "Everyone claims to be the wife of a soldier away at the front. Many really are at home, lonely and unprovided for, except for small pensions, and they drift onto the streets and into saloons."

"Thousands of soldiers come back from the front to find their wives utterly different. This is a great menace to our boys at the front."

"There are also the casualty lists. In Paris I was accosted by a pretty little woman with every evidence of refinement."

"Why in the world are you in this place?" she asked him.

"She wept when she answered. 'I saw the casualty list the other day. My husband's name was there.'"

"That's the grim reason. There are thousands of others just like her."

"In the eyes of French women Americans are heroes now. These women will desert a Frenchman in a second to go to the side of an American."

"I myself have been accosted innumerable times by women who seemed delighted at their discovery that I was an American."

The Married Life of Helen and Warren

A Paucity of Peas and Warren's Blunder Contribute to Helen's Discomfort.

By MABEL HERBERT URNER, Originator of "Their Married Life," Author of "The Journal of a Neglected Wife," "The Woman Alone," Etc.

This series is a continuation of "Their Married Life," produced by Mabel Herbert Urner for four years. "The Married Life of Helen and Warren," appearing exclusively in this paper, is the only series now being written by Mabel Herbert Urner.

"Now, dear, don't forget," cautioned Helen with whispered intensity. "You mustn't take any peas—and very little potatoes." "All right, I'll go light," promised Warren. "But hurry it along. Clawson's got to catch the 9:30." "Oh, if you'd only phoned—if you'd only given me an hour," as if in fluttering anxiety she reset the table for two extra places.

"Told you how it happened," irritably. "They showed up at the last minute, and I didn't have a chance to get ready." "Yes, yes, I know," hastily. "Wait, open this," taking a bottle of sauce from the lower part of the sideboard. "That cloth looks too soiled," as she put down the wine glasses. "Won't take a second to change it."

"Now, there's no time for frills—they'll never notice the cloth. This is safe to predict that within a few years we may see a rapid improvement in means of communication with all other parts of South America."

Labor Day will be observed here by a general suspension of business. Banks, city and government offices will be closed all day. Today hundreds of persons left the city to spend the day at nearby resorts. Included in this number were many motor parties.

GAS BOMBS THREATEN LIVES OF CHILDREN

Gas bombs fired by Germans are threatening the lives of children behind the front lines in France.

Reports yesterday from Red Cross headquarters in France said that recently 750 children had to be rescued from such bombardment.

When Red Cross workers arrived they found that twenty-one of the children were under 1 year old, and the remainder under 8 years.

Inhabitants of the villages under fire wear face-masks to escape asphyxiation. Children cannot utilize this device, so they have to be removed to safety or be asphyxiated.
